

XM satellite gives me music/news/info stations that are not available in my area by any other means. AM/FM reception is inconsistent in this area. Satellite radio avoids this problem. I feel my rights as a consumer would be compromised should X-M radio services be limited as requested by the National Association of Broadcasters.

Thank you.